

Sample Itinerary for Washington DC

As the capital of the United States, DC is packed with history, culture, and cool experiences. It is a great place for students to dive into American history and see democracy in action. Immerses yourself in the core of the American Experience.

DAY 1: Welcome to Washington, DC!

- Orientation meeting with your experienced Travel Leaders Student Tour trip host.
- Tour Arlington Cemetery and reflect on the sacrifices of American service members.
  - Wreath laying at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier can be arranged.
- Iwo Jima, Marine Corps War Memorial, an inspiring stop on your journey through American History.
- Dinner at Pentagon City Mall
- 9/11 Pentagon Memorial stands as the first national memorial dedicated to this tragedy.
- Check into your Washington, DC area hotel

DAY 2: Capitol Hill

- Start the day with breakfast at your hotel.
- US Capitol Visitor Center and Capitol Tour – Reservation Required
  - Passes to visit the House of Representatives can be arranged
- Lunch at Capitol Visitor's Center
- US Supreme Court
- Library of Congress
- White House Visitors Center and Photo Stop
  - Tour of White House requires a reservation but can be arranged.
- Dinner at Union Station
- Visit the Jefferson, FDR, Korean and MLK Memorials.

DAY 3: Smithsonian Museums

- Start the day with breakfast at your hotel
- Natural History Museum
- American History
- Air and Space Museum
- Lunch
- National Achieves
- End the day with a dinner and dance cruise on the Potomac or a performance and dinner at the Kennedy Center.

DAY 4: Departure day

- Start the day with breakfast at your hotel
- Check out of your DC area hotel
- Visit the Lincoln, Vietnam, WWII and photo stop at the Washinton Memorial
- Reagan Building and International Trade Center
- Holocaust Museum
- Say good-bye to the city and depart for home

Additional Information:

- Typical DC tours range from 3 to 5 days.
- Combine your DC visit with other popular destinations like NYC, and /or Philadelphia.
- Customizable trips to suit the needs and budget of your group.
- This itinerary can be tailored to fit any educational curriculum, including music, sports, art, history, and more. Performances can be arranged for bands and choirs.
- We can arrange transportation via bus, train, or plane.